

HR Performance: An Introduction

We have been supporting our clients since 2002 - advising them on best practice with regard to Human Resources; ensuring that they comply with employment legislation; whilst still enabling them to take the decisions to run their business effectively. We have developed and nurtured an enviable reputation for our knowledge and expertise as creative specialists at offering reliable HR support and advice. And when it comes to dealing with those “tricky” employee challenges you’d be surprised at how easily we cut through the problems that you face.

We offer our HR services through a number of affordable packages designed for every size of business...

Retained HR Manager: Many of our clients are so impressed with the range of services and value for money that we offer that we are retained as the organisation’s HR Manager....and all for an incredibly competitive and low daily rate!

HR Credit Card: We offer HR support and advice contracts in simple 10 hour packages that allow your key line managers to access expert advice as and when they need it; and which is all chargeable in client friendly five minute slots. Your minutes never expire and every month you receive a statement clearly setting out how much of your contract you have used and what is remaining.

Policies & Procedures: We have years of practical experience developing high quality policies and procedures to support and protect the employer; whilst offering terms, conditions and benefits to attract and retain the very best workforce. We offer over 80 simply written policies and procedures and can develop bespoke policies to address unique client specific issues.

Small Business Total HR Support Package: If you want the very best HR support at a small business friendly cost then this is the package for you. All your offer letters, contracts of employment and an employee handbook packed full of the policies and procedures required to manage your employees - and all bundled with 12 months of unlimited HR Support & Advice - for a fixed low price!

HR Resource Centre: A 24/7 dedicated on-line HR resource crammed full of simply written explanations of nearly 30 different day to day HR issues with well over 100+ downloadable template letters and resources to allow you to tackle these pro-actively.

Free Downloads: This area of the website provides updates about recent changes to employment legislation as well as other free and downloadable HR Resources covering a wide range of the day to day employment and employee related issue you’ll have to tackle. Subscribers to our free monthly newsletter get these first delivered straight to their inbox.

Each service listed above is described in greater detail on the pages within our website. Each web pages content is also downloadable as a PDF for reading at your leisure and for circulation as required.
